about the Employee Retention Credit.

What is it?

The Employee Retention Credit (ERC) is a refundable tax credit. Employers can take advantage of the ERC against federal employment taxes via qualified wages paid to their employees from March 13, 2020 to December 31, 2021. Businesses can retroactively claim the credit against past quarters!

Who's eligible?

Private businesses or tax-exempt organizations of all sizes that conduct a trade or business and meet one or both of the following criteria:

- Your business was forced to partially or fully suspend or limit operations by a governmental order
- Your business experienced a 50% decline in gross receipts during any quarter in 2020 versus the same quarter in 2019, and/or a 20% decline in gross receipts during any quarter in 2021 versus the same quarter in 2019

How to claim the credit:

We strongly recommend that you consult with EASI to maximize the value of the ERC.

How EASI will help your business claim the credit:

- We will help you determine which quarters you are eligible for
- We will analyze your wages for available credits in each eligible quarter
- We will file a form 941-X, Adjusted Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return
